

Program Options through other Conservation Partners (not an all-inclusive list)

Pheasants Forever- Jacob Klath; 701-430-2109; jklath@pheasantsforever.org

- Precision ag & Conservation- Turning Red acres Green
 - Does NOT require hunting access
 - Possible Cost share for perennial cover, cover crops, and pollinators
 - Possible land rental payment for cover
 - Free consultation, habitat recommendations, and profitability analysis
- Public Access to Habitat (PATH) Program- Incentive payments to plant grass.
 - New grass plantings only

Meadowlark Initiative: Heather Husband, Coordinator- 701-223-8501 (office), 701-537-3348 (cell) or heather@naturalresourcestrust.com

- Project to improve, increase and connect wildlife habitat and support the sustainability of new and existing livestock ranchers. Practices include, but are not limited to, grass plantings, livestock water, prescribed grazing, and cross fences. Contact Heather for this program.

USFWS- Chris Flann: 701-752-4218 ext. 3 (w); 701-650-1220 (cell), christopher_flann@fws.gov

- Program & Cost Share Options available.
- Don't have to allow access to hunting.

NDGF- Renae Schultz- PLOTS program: 701-320-4695 (cell), rjschultz@nd.gov

- Public Access to Habitat (PATH) Program- Incentive payments to plant grass & enter into PLOTS program.
 - New grass plantings only
- PLOTS Program

Tree Plantings- LaMoure County Soil Conservation District (SCD)- Susan Muske: 701-320-8724 (Susan's cell), susan.muske@nd.nacdnet.net or Melissa Shockman: 701-709-0963; melissa.shockman@nd.nacdnet.net

- Opportunities available for tree plantings and windbreak renovations. Give Susan Muske or Melissa Shockman a call.

Ducks Unlimited: William Palarski- 701-390-7382 (c), 701-355-3510 (o) wpalarski@ducks.org

- Cover crop and livestock integration project IV (CCLIP)- First Come, first serve.
 - 75% cost share on water infrastructure & cover crop seed.
 - 15% additional cost share for wildlife friendly fencing and or water systems for enrolling into PLOTS
 - 60% cost share on Fencing Infrastructure & Portable Windbreak Panels
- Smart Livestock Advancing Terrestrial Ecosystems (SLATE)
 - 75% Cost share on Virtual Fence & Water Developments
 - 60% cost share on Traditional Fence
 - Additional 15% cost share incentive if also enrolling into PLOTS.

Governor's Legacy Soil Health & Habitat Program- Melissa Shockman- 701-709-0963; melissa.shockman@nd.nacdnet.net

- 5-year agreement to establish & manage grass- new grass seedings.
- Annual rental payment based on the average county rental rate.
- Cost share for grass seed and seeding.

Audubon- Great Plains: Adam Brendemuhl- 218-790-3095, adam.brendemuhl@audubon.org; Charli Kohler-Prodinski- 701-509-7357, charlene.kohler@audubon.org; Juli Bosmoe- 605-290-2571; julianna.bosmoe@audubon.org

- Conservation Forage Program- Restore marginal cropland to native grassland.
- ND Prairie Management Toolbox- cost share available for establishing rotational grazing systems, fence & water and invasive woody removal on grasslands.

ND Natural Resources Trust- www.ndnrt.com

- Working Grasslands Partnership (WGP)
 - The WGP provides landowners with voluntary options to help develop expiring CRP acres into a livestock grazing systems that will also benefit grassland birds.
 - Cost share practices: Fencing & Water Installation for grazing.
 - Terry Allbee- 701-223-8501, terry@naturalresourcestrust.com
- Wildlife and Livestock Dams Enhancement Project
 - The Wildlife & Livestock Dam project assists private landowners to create, enhance and restore wetland habitat in North Dakota for the benefit of wildlife populations and livestock production.
 - Cost share practices: Wetland creations, Wetland dam repairs & Wetland restorations
 - Contact: Rick Warhurst, (701) 223-8501, rick@naturalresourcestrust.com